Decision Making Chart (After the round, fill in the following chart to make your decision.)

1. List of issues <small>Each side should not present more than two issues. Ignore extra ADs and DAs!</small>	2. Probability <small>Whether the issue was constructed and defended by facts and evidence</small>	× 3. Value (Impact) <small>Whether the value (impact, significance) of the issue was effectively explained and defended</small>	= 4. Strength
Advantage 1	Hi / Lo	Large / Small	Strong / Weak / None
Advantage 2	Hi / Lo	Large / Small	Strong / Weak / None
Disadvantage 1	Hi / Lo	Large / Small	Strong / Weak / None
Disadvantage 2	Hi / Lo	Large / Small	Strong / Weak / None

5. Compare the net sum of the issues

TICK IF YES	AFF won: If $AD\ 1 + AD\ 2 > DA\ 1 + DA\ 2$
TICK IF YES	NEG won: If $DA\ 1 + DA\ 2 \geq AD\ 1 + AD\ 2$

6. Check your decision

Your VOTING ISSUE was: <small>"Voting issue" is the most decisive issue (AD/DA) that affected your vote. If you can't name it, it is probable that your decision might not be based on arguments but on superficial matters (such as English accents, impressive Attacks etc). If so, reconsider your decision.</small>	FILL IN THE LABEL OF THE ISSUE (Such as AD1, DA2)
Are you sure that your vote is NOT influenced by NEW ARGUMENTS? <small>"New arguments" in the latter part of the round are prohibited. Reconsider your decision if you think some of the arguments were new.</small>	TICK IF YES

1. The Winner Please be extra cautious that the team you are writing here was actually debating on the side you intend to vote for!	Team Name
